

T-572-4 (Fourth of Four Interviews)
MARTHA REDMAN, DELAWARE
INTERVIEWED BY: J. W. TYNER
INTERVIEW DATE: APRIL 14, 1970
TRANSCRIBED BY: FLORA QUINATA
PROOFREAD BY: NONA KERR

GENERAL SUBJECT: EARLY SETTLEMENT OF DELAWARES ON HOGSHOOTER CREEK
IN GLENOAK COMMUNITY

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

BRIEF INTRODUCTION
CEMETERIES IN THE AREA
EARLY DAY PEOPLE AND PLACES
HOGSHOOTER CREEK AND AREA
RECALLS SOME BURIAL CUSTOMS
ENJOYED BROWSING IN SCHOOL LIBRARY WHEN A SMALL GIRL
MORE ABOUT LOCAL SCHOOL BUILDINGS
NOT MUCH FARMING NOW - JUST RANCHING
DELAWARES USUALLY SETTLED ALONG STREAMS OF WATER IN WOODS
SADDENED ABOUT LACK OF RESPECT FOR OLD CEMETERIES
GRAVE DIGGING SOUNDS HORRIBLE

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Martha Redman was born in 1900 in the Glenoak Community in Washington County, Oklahoma. She still lives in this same community at the present time. She received her education in schools in the Cole, Hillsdale and Tyner schools.

Note: The other interviews on this tape are: Joseph Rogers, Delaware
Nola Jones Egnor, Cherokee
Kenneth Oyler, Cayuga