

West of--northwest of Dewey. That's the only one I've heard of.)

No, the Tyner stomping grounds as people often refer to 'em, you know. Well, now I have heard and I don't know. But I have heard somewhere along is just little old tents and so forth and so on. And that was sort of an Indian settlement. But that would have been before my time.

(Yes ma'm.)

Now I heard also at one time and that was before my time too. That often the school was in a home, somebody's home.

(That would sound reasonable.)

Third voice: This country is cut up in trails. We can't figure out what made them.

(Yeah.)

Third voice: Erosion shows there was a trail up here and trail here.

(Yeah.)

Third voice: You can't tell which way they go--

(End of tape.)
