

(So, you want to wait until they get through?)

When they get through, then, we have ours in church I suppose, and decoration down here.

(Oh, down here.)

Mmmm-hmmm, but the church says I'm gonna have it next month.

Unidentified voice: Next month (not clear)

(Yeah.)

Sometimes in April.

(And after you feed them, then, you're gonna have them go out and help dig these fence post and put these post in?)

Unidentified voice: (not clear)

Yeah, we do that before we have the decoration, and, then, we put the fence up.

(But you're goin' to add the chili supper. You're goin' to get them help do that, right?)

Yeah, mmmm-hmmm.

(Like they did a long time ago when ya'll used to get together to put up a barn or something.)

Unidentified voice: Yes, you know, that's nice, too. I told my brother, Duce, "How come?" He said, "I don't know. I like to do things like that."

(Long time ago, did they used to do that, Dolly?)

Yes, they did.

(All get together?)

All get together build a house, build a barn.

(Mmmm-hmmm, help each other out.)

Unidentified voice: (not clear)

(What were they called?)