

Yeah, that's what they call spurs.

(Oh)

He's pretty smart.

Unidentified voice: (not clear)

(Oh.)

He's (name not clear) boy. You know, he 's working over there through the government.

(That's great.)

Unidentified voice: (not clear -- in Cherokee language)

Unidentified voice: You did?

Unidentified voice: Yeah, in the paper.

(It's too bad there's not more of a demand for it so you make, you know, give little business going or something.)

Yeah, we used to do it all the time in all kinds of business since (not clear), you know, since he got older and his old shop tearing down.

(Well, too, the cars come in, horses kinda went out, didn't they?

Uh-huh, but now they're coming out. They're coming up again.

(Well, they're cheaper than cars.) (Laughter)

I know that.

Unidentified voice: (not clear)

(Uh-huh.)

Unidentified voice: (not clear)

(Probably, so he can have a pair of homemade ones.)

Unidentified voice: Yeah.

(It must be getting after school time, isn't it? If that's the school bus. So, Dolly, on that skin corn, about how long did you cook it?)

Oh, over-night.

(Oh, you let it set on the fireplace?)
