

brother was hit with glass on this side.

(Yeah.)

And the stuff severed an artery, you know, stuck like that. Pressure come on his brain and kill him.

(Well.)

It was about a month and a half before he died. Boy I drove down there.

Seven hundred miles. I never got to catch him and tell him about it. We hadn't visited him for some time so that was our last visit.

(Much static).

-- we had a lot of good furniture there awhile. When he first started out he was just like any other young 'fella. He bought a lot of stuff.

(Yeah.)

And he wouldn't have very steady work and my dad had to take the furniture back.

My dad was running a hardware store run across where the old First National Bank used to be.

(Yeah.)

Near the old pioneer building. And my nephew took me dad's .38 Smith and Wesson Special with a six inch barrel. And when my dad when went out there, you know, to see about my brother. Tom Mix said, Uncle Will, how you fixed for spending money? You know lot of people just like to say I done this without knowing it. My dad knew he took the gun, but he just never did say nothing about it. He just wrote the old man out a check for 250 dollars. Said here. In other words, I'm going to pay you for the gun. And that gun is up there in the museum.

DALTON BROTHERS WERE FRIENDS

(Static -- words concerning Dalton outlaws)

(Well)
