

LOCATES WHITE OAK COMMUNITY ON OLD PHOTOGRAPH

No. White Oak was down there. That picture I showed you was down there.

(Oh that was on --)

You want to see the picture again?

(I would like to, yes ma'm.)

Well now, if I can find it I have a negative here if you would like (static)

--- anniversary. They have -- 1871. (Sentence not clear.)

(Yes.)

(Not clear--too low.)

(Words not clear) --antique store is down here?

(Yes ma'm.)

Well, this is back this way:

(Now this is looking south, is it? Or southwest?)

Well, I'd say its looking south, best of my knowledge. See, here's the park.

And then they didn't have no depot. Usually they threwed the stuff out.

(And then the highway goes right along here then does it?)

Uh-huh.

(Well.)

No, it would be on this side.

(Oh, on this side. Well, the town was on the other side of the tracks then?)

Nope, the town wasn't. Well, I can't figure that out. No, the town was on this side. At least part of it was. (Tape skip) this side. Why would that picture look like that.

(I don't know.)

'Cause the main part.

(Well, this picture of White Oak was taken in Indian Territory days.)

Uh-huh. Yes, it was.
