

They had to have.

(Yeah; Then they had plenty of time. That's something we haven't got nowadays is time.)

I regret that, don't you?

(I do.)

Now I often wonder what do we do with the time.

(Well, I hope no one really ask me because I couldn't tell 'em.)

I couldn't either.

OPTIMISTIC CONCERNING FUTURE - LIKES YOUNG PEOPLE

(And, you know, looking into the future what's it going to be like ten or twenty years from now if we're so short on time now.)

You see the way so many of these young people do. 'Course I know we got lot of nice young people. I know that.

(There is. There's a lot of them.)

But the way some of 'em do, I'm beginning to wonder. Don't you?

(Some of 'em make such a fuss and stink that it makes all the rest of 'em look bad. But there's just a few of 'em causing all of the disscension.

There's not many. They just get more publicity.

(That's right. They're the ones that make the headlines. Well, then it makes all the others look bad, but there are a lot of good young people. Nice folks.)

Nice people. No, them days, you know, if someone got sick there's no hospital.

All the neighbors went. They kept coming by. They'd sit up all night. They'd take care of 'em. Family wasn't expected to. The neighbors looked after 'em.

DOCTORS IN EARLY DAYS

(Did you ever have a doctor here in White Oak?)

Yes. We had--well first was doctor Haynes. Mr. Haynes' father. He retired.

and come out here to the farm, but still he'd--when there's births or sickness
