I. didn't know much about him before I married him. But I know him when I married hin. I live with him about 20 so:ee years, $1932-1956$. I know him well teizicen then. I know him before that just here and there. He's been in business lone tire. ifien I was a little girl, ve got his picture here at the old agency, when he worked as Indian police. He's a bif man, tall, 6'l".

His mother was Apache, but his father was Lipan and yexican. I don't know what part of 0ld Kexico. Then Lipan lived in Old liexico, and then ceme to :!ed !exico. They like them mountains, ther people. Sonctime he talks about way back. :Be con'i haraly talk about his people. I tried to find out hos his father marrici inio the tribe. These people way back, they go back ard forth. The Apaches were in ine Elack fills, and then they drifted down to so:newheres in llebras:a. The Apache fo back and forth, the warpath, you see. That's where his follis come down over here. 芳s fatrer vas just a young boy. :iebraska is where his folks marricd, his old mas tarried an apache woman. His (Ben's father) folks left rin, and he got into this trite. :io said it was in Nebraska. Theij keep coning down this way. After the-Treat; o: !edicire Lode they drifted into 0:latior.3.

This old man, Apache Jen's father, he was left there with the trice. Finen he rarried this Apache woina, after the Xedicine Locige Treoty. Tint's whi fo (Enn) saic. Tren they come back to kansas. He (Een) was a little boy. he didn't ano. noonir: $=111$ he come back to 0klnhowa. :ie has a rood sized wan wira he tot to rity with ite oifice as Indian police. Ye was about 25 , a food crom tan. Dui he wasn'i rarriea yei. Eat his sister wastolder than hix. I thini he's got $4-5$ on then an' nis trother, yourjer brother.

 grass, he always dose tity :

 but not where Ben is turieà.
