

beat no one. He saw to it that it was done. She said she use to see hand cuff on them Seminoles and had cuffs on their feet. When they had to use rest room, they would chain tie them together and take them to rest room. She told that her daddy was a Seminole chief.

EIGHTH GRADE EDUCATION-CHILOCCO INDIAN SCHOOL

(She is seventy five years old but she didn't get old age pension. She said she had enough money--(Laughter)--I asked her birthday and she laugh and said, "Maybe I'm going to get gift." And I laughed.)

She got to eighth grade. She got a certificate for cooking. She went to school at Chilocco Indian school. She said she use to drill the girls and lead them.

SHE IS A GOOD COOK BUT NO INDIAN COOKING

(We asked her about the stomp dance and Indian Ball game.)

She said she played ball. And she kill a man playing ball. (Laughter).

She was good ball player. They have a post and put cow head, (skeleton) on top of the post, they threw at and made scores.

She said she is "Ocheesee Ban". She asked us what we were.

She said they wrote to her to come to meeting and that she can take part and has her freedom to motion and speak out, but she said, "How do they expect me to hear what they are saying."--

She can cook good meat and she bakes good but she cannot do Indian cooking.

She talked about Uncle tall man and Uncle short man. We asked if they had name but she didn't know.

She talk quite a bit about her relatives. She said Cunseh was a given name to Indian.

She keeps repeating things and also she said long time ago "old days" were better days than today.
