

T-589-3 (Third of Four Interviews)
FLOSSIE BLAIR NEAL, CHEROKEE
INTERVIEWED BY: J. W. TYNER
INTERVIEW DATE: JUNE 6, 1970
TRANSCRIBED BY: FLORA QUINATA

GENERAL SUBJECT: MILLERS RIDGE COMMUNITY, SEQUOYAH COUNTY, OKLAHOMA;
HISTORY OF SEQUOYAH COUNTY AND COUNTRY

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

GRANDPARENTS COME FROM NORTH CAROLINA ABOUT 1839
MUCH ABOUT SEQUOYAH AND HIS HOME
OLD SKIN BAYOU COURTHOUSE
MORE ABOUT TOWNS OF MAPLE AND SWEET TOWN
HANGING OF SPADE SUNSHINE
VAGUE INFORMATION CONCERNING SEQUOYAH
SALT SPRINGS-PEOPLE IN THE AREA

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Flossie Blair Neal is fifty-five years of age. She was born in Sequoyah County and relates much of the history of this part of the state. She now lives in Miller's Ridge Community in Sequoyah County.

Note: Other interviews on this tape are - Robert Long, Wyandotte
Solomon Wilson, Creek
Grace Lane, Delaware