(Yes.)

Whenever he /words not clear/. And they made another copy off of him. But I can find out from the curator up here. At Sequoyah's home, where you could get that. /static/

OLD SKIN BAYOU COURTHOUSE

(Have you heard something else I wanted to find out. And that was the district courthouse for the Skin Bayou or what later became the Sequoyah district of the Cherokee Nation.)

Now I believe, I believe now this /name not clear/ could tell you more about that. I believe that they had it over here close to Maple.

(Maple.)

I believe that's where it was over there close to Maple.

(Is there any history that you know of about that place? When it was established? How long it existed?)

No. /tape skip/. He kept a record over here that she has. I'm almost sure that I can't find it from her, or anybody over there in Maple. Because they can remember more about that old courthouse. And there might be some old timers around over in Maple that could tell you about it now.

(Could be true.)

'Cause that's where they went to get their, what do you call it? The strip...

(The strip payment. Yes, ma'am.)

Their payment, it was.

(That was one of the last payments.)

Yeah.

MORE ABOUT TOWN OF MAPLE AND SWEET TOWN

(Was there a store or trading post at Maple at one time?)

I don't know. Yeah. There used to be a store. Now, I'll tell you what. My daddy was born and raised up around Maple and all up in there.
