

(Where did this road go to?)

I guess it just be made. There was a road over here by this corner to the barn and to the sheds. But this one, maybe they just--I don't know--

(This is all tribal land here?)

All of it is tribal land.

(Do you know how many acres they have?)

* * *

(Were there other agencies in other districts?)

Yeah, they had an Agency at Darlington--old Darlington. And at Colony and Red Moon. I guess that was all the agencies when they first started. Colony and then Darlington.

(Red Moon is over at Hammon?)

It's over at Hammon, but you know they abolished that school and that Agency. All the agencies went to Anadarko. They took all our papers down there. That the main Agency we got--Anadarko. I don't know why they moved us.

(Who was the Agent over here?)

That time I was in school there was Mr. White and then after that they had one Mr. Bradley. That's the two Agents we had. And after I went out of school there was Mr. West.

(What was Mr. White like?)

Oh, he was a heavy-set man--

(Which way to go to Noble Star's place?)

We have to go this way.

(Well, was he liked by the Indians?)

Yeah, he was liked by the Indians. His wife was a teacher. He had a daughter that was a teacher. No, his wife was a cook and his daughter was a teacher. Her name was Pearl White.
