

(Oh, in a log house. Well do you have a doctor? How many miles is it from Weleetka?)

Four miles. And I walked.

(You walk--)

I walk to town.

(All the time?)

Even when I want to go to town. If I don't see nobody I just step out and somebody pick me up. Everybody know me around here.

(Oh.)

And my father was a pastor of The-wah-lee Church.

(Oh what was his name?)

Lambert Scott.

(Lambert Scott.)

And my mother was Roberson. Commie Roberson from Eufaula. I mean Muskogee.

(From Muskogee?)

Uh-huh.

(Oh-h.)

I was baptised in 1906.

(1906. At The-wah-lee.)

That's where we belonged to.

(How far is that from here?)

It's about eight miles.

(You don't walk over there, do you?)

No. (Laughter). Sometimes I feel like walking over there.

(You still go to church over there?)

Yeah.

(Oh.)

When I have a way, I go every time.
