(Oh, in a log house. Well do you have a doctor? How many miles is it from Weleetka?)
Four miles. And I walked.
(You walk--)
I walk to town.
(All the time?)
Even when I want to go to town. If I don't see nobody I just step out and somebody pick me up. Everybody know me around here;
(0h.)
And my father was a pastor of The-wah-lee Church.
(Oh what was his name?)
Lambert Scott.
(Lambert Scott.)
And my mother was Roberson. Commie Roberson from Eufaula. I mean Muskogee.
(From Muskogee?)
Uh-huh.
(0h-h.)
I was baptised in 1906.
(1906. At The-wah-lee.)
That's where we belonged to.
(How far is that from here?)
It's about eight miles.
(You don't walk over there, do you?)
No. (Laughter). Sometimes I feel like walking over there.
(You still go to church over there?)
Yeah.`
(0h.)

When I have a way, I go every time.
