

I'm about the only one down here.

(How long have you lived here?)

Since 1910.

(Oh.)

When I first got married I lived just across the road. And we moved here and moved back, lived on mama's place. Then we moved to Eufaula. We stayed there one year. And then moved back here. And I've been here ever since.

(Uh-hum. Do you-- the Indians visit very often around here?)

Yeah. I have visitors. I got, I have some eggs to sell. And I have visitors might near ever other day. (Laughter).

(Oh-h.)

I got chicken. Them town people--lots of Indian lives in town. And they come down here and buy eggs.

(How much do you sell them eggs?)

Three dozen for a dollar.

(Um-m. That's good.)

Uh-hum.

Thrid Voice: (Inaudible)

(Did you know old John Tiger in Eufaula?)

No. I don't. I didn't know nobody back that way till I got married. We moved there only his grandma and his aunt. They only one I knowed down there.

I know Peter Young. I know some of them McIntosh. After I was married you know he belongs to Sulphur Springs. We went and I got acquainted with them McIntosh over there.

EDUCATION

(Uh-huh. Did you ever go to school?)

Yeah.
