

soak the ground and make it go down. I guess that settles that dirt on there.

DOES NOT REMEMBER FAIRY STORIES

(Well do you know any Indian fairy tales? You know of anybody that knows them?)

(Laughter)

No, I don't think anybody is old enough to know those, around here.

(Oh. They're all gone.)

Yes, the people all gone.

(Did you used to hear them?)

Well, I did, a few. But I don't hardly remember what they said.

(What about these--do you believe in seeing the spirits and ghost and stuff like that?)

No.

(You don't.)

If I did, I wouldn't be staying here. (Laughter) I just sit by myself, all day and all night.

STRANGE NOISES - INTERPRETATION

(Well, what I meant is these Indians, long time ago they done some things that us younger ones don't know about. And that's what I'm trying to get to.)

Well, they said, its lots of doings around here once in a while. But I don't know what they mean by that. Sometime said put you to sleep and going on. And sometime there's an owl hooting and said it's somebody around here and maybe coyotes howling. Somebody's around the house or somewheres like that. But I just don't believe in it.

(Oh.)

But they said people (speaks Creek). Like that..And then I seen lots of people die with it. My brother died with it.
