

And you, couldn't anyone come in that quarter of that lawn of that place.
Cause that was free range.

(Yeah)

They couldn't sell that. All you owned was on that place. That's the only way they could sell.

(Well, people got along pretty good though, didn't they?)

Ah-hum.

(Good neighbor, and they had good times.)

But ah, (sentence not clear).

(Yeah!)

"Log raising". When you wanted to build a house in a day.

(You know, I think generation now days, miss something by not having lived back yonder.)

They missed a lot. (Interruption.)

(Ah-hum)

They call 'em ah, I don't know, they stay out on (not clear) a month.

(Hum)

CAMP MEETINGS

They'd have a place where they put corn, you know. The boys bring a little corn and put in there so people from different parts of the country could come there and camp.

(Yeah!)

Big camp meetings. Feed their horses on that corn.

(Ah-huh)

(Laughter.)

(Well. That was really being a good neighbor, wasn't it?)

It was.
