rederal charter. This charter conveys any powers properly rested in a bray comporate under the Oklahoma laws, the right to participate in a revolving credit fund established by the government, and other rights and privileges secured as an organized Indian tribe under the Maceler Moward ict. Under this act the Theeler Moward ict. Under this act the Theeler Shawnees are organized as the "Absentee Shawnee Tribe of Indians of Oklahoma." This organization is governed by a tribal council, headed by the Absentee Shawnee Business Committee. The ceremonial life of the Fig Jim band of the Absentee Shawnees was directed by Chief Little Jim during his life time, and continues under the direction of his descendants coday