

'CONCERNING CLANS - NAMING MEMBERS OF FAMILY

(--kinda gotta, like if I wanted to, or any one, they have to be in that clan to name?)

Uh-huh. (Osage name), her father is John Whitehorn, her father different, is same clan but different, he happens to be fish clan. Same clan as (not clear) only they are fish clan.

(Like Charlie, where did he come in?)

Who?

(Charlie Whitehorn.)

He is from John Whitehorn (Osage name).

(He's not deer, huh?)

No, he is (Osage word) fish (Osage word) that's his name. John Whitehorn his name (Osage name).

(Now like--Charlie he says he does it that, but I don't know, you know, he told Paul Pitts that when he's gone, when there is nobody around but me, he says.)
But he is a fish.

(Oh!)

Paul Pitts is the same as you. (name not clear)--older, is older than Joe Paul, she the oldest one. Naming goes to her. She knows about it, you know.

If you got a boy--

(I was trying to get, you know, you know how we do things, you know all this is kinda--later on just gonna die out.)

Yeah, that's what I said once, keep that in the family. The thing with us, you know. There is two sun clans.

(Two sun clans?)

(not clear) Old Man Minkie (not clear) the name is different, you know.

(Oh, you mean (long pause)--you mean Old Man Minkie lives across the creek over there?)
