

(Ah-huh)

See, we went with the railroad tracks, then, You know. We never walked on the roads. We never had too many road. But what I mean, where we wanted to go. We had the railroad track. Cause, it was closer.

(Surely.)

And we just --

(Maybe had been a whole lot easier walking, too.)

Yeah, expect it was. But you know that--they had a few cars. But didn't know who had the cars. So, and course we use to walk to school.

(Ah, can you -- )

Hugh Woods is one down in Fairland, that was an old settler.

(Yes.)

And the Goldman's, freely, Goodman and there is alot of them down in there.

(Have you heard anything about any of the Shawnee that were up around the Russell Creek. Now that would be way up north, towards the Kansas line.)

Kansas line; the lower Kansas.

(Ah, yeah.)

Lets me see, trying to think. Part of them that is Eastern Shawnee, and part of them are Lower Shawnee. And how I don't know.

(Well-I wonder what the difference -- )

Is

(Primary it would be -- )

Well, from what I understand. Now, I dont' know. But up in Ohio, when they were in Ohio, you know.

(Yeah.)

Tippecanoe, where they had that battle, you know. They said some of them,
