

EARLY INDIAN NAMES

(Considering what records, keeping actually that took place in the older day. You could find anything.)

Lands yes! One says it was a granddaughter, and ones says it was a daughter.

So I don't know. And then the name comes in, so you really don't know.

As you say it's hard to prove a thing. Names of animals.

(They did use the name of animals to a great extent, birds also.)

Blacksnake.

(Yes)

And --

(They did not go into trees or insects or butterflies.)

No!

(Butterflies to much.)

Ah, no, I never did notice that. (sentence not clear) .

(Interruption.)

(I check that surely and yet --)

They use to own, do you remember along time ago they use to be a wooden house down in the Frisco.

(Ah-huh)

There the Autry lives there.

(Well)

They use to go to the Orphan and get the children to come up, and work through the summer. And my grandmother and Uncle John was two of them they let come up and work. And that's where she met grandpa. Course they work on the first year. And Gutry was one of them. Old one's (Interruption)
One the old Hudson place. Where those Hudson was. What they call it, a Trading Post. And Gilmer Field's daughter, might be able to give you heck of a lot
