

(Well, I don't blame you.)

We are take them to the library, you know. Where they wanna study back.

(Was there a church, up in the Hudson Creek Community that you recall?)

I think there was, but I wouldn't tell, I couldn't tell you if it was.

I don't--I don't know. But I remember them says that years and years ago there use to be a little church. A little log cabin church.

(Yeah.)

I don't know what it was or nothing. Because first before I could begin to get this started there was so many of them passing away. And all at once, they were all gone. And I had -- .

(You know, it's ah, it's surprising even at this late of day. Of the amount of unrecorded things that keeps popping up.)

Oh, I tell you (sentence not clear) There is one is plum back in, I don't know how you get to it. But anyhow where that little Antique Store. Set on the corner, go south, back in there and back. And a curve back to the east. (Sentence not clear). and that road that circle right around that house there. And I bet it hasn't been cleaned for years and years.

(Yeah! Right down in the Shawnee County, there are several (Interruption) .)

(Way back there I remember I ran into some. Some of the folks had Catale as a post office.

(That's what I found -- )

So I drove in there one time. Did you ever drive back in there?

(Yes, ma'am.)

Them little buildings fascinate me. I don't know what they was or what they are. But I said somebody oughta picture before they are destroyed.

(Yes)
