

Fanman comments:

"There's a man in braids on the south side that's not a Pueblo Indian. He's one of our Cheyenne boys that takes part in occasions. That's Harvey Russell. We might call him 'Horse' because I bet he's only Indian that's got a horse. (Pause) Arthur Madbull says he has a bay horse."

During this Beard special:

Lequita Lonebear called for a gift.

Dale Young Bear called. Fanman says: "--part Arapaho from Thomas. The other part I don't know." When someone--probably Lequita--comes to get her gift, he says, "Here comes Baby Doll."

Ella Lambull, the other princess, is called for a gift.

Speaking of Helen and her father, Dave Fanman says, "These two go around-- the old man (Lorenzo Beard) and his daughter."

"The Aunquoe lady at the 'drum' called. (Probably Mrs. James Aunquoe)(Kiowa)
