

waxu eiθi

(Now say the word that means "Greasy Leggings.")

caebinωtω.haed (Myrtle had told me in informal conversation that the Arapahoes living east of Geary along the Canadian used to be called "Greasy Leggings." --jj.)

(O.K. Now the word for "Fall-off-a-horse.")

caenisibeit (This term was applied to the Arapahoes around Colony--jj.)

(Once more.)

cae.nisibeitθi

(Did you ever hear of any reason why they had these kind of names for these people--like "Ugly-Faced People"?)

I don't know. Maybe there was a lot of ugly people up here (Canton district)--especially me! Yeah, they used to call them (Canton Arapahoes)

waxu eiθi

(What about the people living around Eagle City--would they have any special name for them?)

That's all waxu eiθi

(And Buffalo Mountain, too?)

Yeah.

(What about the people around Calumet--was there any name for them?)

Say, they used to just say "Small town." haecaehwuhw'w.wu

(That means "small town"?)

Yeah. And I think--I don't know what it means--but the Geary people, they used to call them waseinw.x -- waseinw.xhaebi -- That's Geary.

You might just as well put Watonga on there-- w'w'tae.nw'w.wu

(What does that mean?)

That means "black town." It was this--well, they couldn't pronounce it--
