

(The Little Dave, yeah, that's prominent old family.)

Really old families. -And the Smiths.

(Yeah!)

Well, used to be his family that lived over there at Standing Rock Hollow. Got two boys that are still living. And the rest of the Smith stayed up the road.

(Yeah!)

But he had land, he had allotment down there, and he still down there and raised his family. And the boys still living on the land down there. I took care of one of that granddaughter one year.

(Well, let's see, was there any Adairs up in this country, or were they all along the river?)

No, the only Adairs that I ever knew was my teacher, Terry Adair. The only Adair that I ever knew.

EDUCATION - SCHOOL INCIDENTS

(What the first school that you went to, Maggie?)

Brewer!

(Brewer.)

First went to Brewer then I went to Wyandotte, the next year I went to just sixth grade. I went to sixth grade, three years. Because my mother wouldn't let me go to Chilocco. (laughter) I go back every year, just go back to the sixth grade. I was pretty well educated.

(Yes, you were! Spend three years in the same grade.)

Boy! She wouldn't let me go to Chilocco. Because Chandler had a daughter. Her name was Claudine. She lives in California. Her and I were the same age. She absolutely wouldn't let me go. And then we had a doctor up there at Wyandotte. He used to come out Wyandotte from the hospital.
