

themselves.

(Yeah, I've seen Indian boys kill rabbits a lot.)

Now I won't eat a rabbit.

(You had all the rabbit you wanted then.)

Had all I wanted..

(They sure have. Were the children up there--were they pretty well satisfied though?)

Yeah, they were--

(Been together.)

PRINCIPAL AND SUPERINTENDENT RESIGN

Yeah, but one year there was real sad part about it. Something happen between not O.K. and George. George Tyner was the principal. When O.K. (not clear) was fired he had to hand in his resignation. George quit.

(Ah-hum!)

I remember I must of been about this big. Everybody was walking away and cars were coming to get their kids. And one of my sister, I had two sisters up there. And one of them ran off with the rest of them. They run off. They walked off. They didn't run off. They just walked off.

(Yeah!)

And that just left a very few of us boys and girls there. And I remember, I didn't know what to do everybody was going home. I was scared. And my other sister run far as to town, a whole bunch of them. And she got to thinking of me begin up there by myself, and so she came back. And I remember I went in George Tyner's house, and I thought I go in and say good-bye. And Mr. and Mrs. Tyner were just giving away their nick nacks and everything, you know, that they couldn't take with them. I don't know what they gave me, but I know they gave me something. But George said,