

LIFE HISTORY

(I guess we can start by you telling me when you were born...)

I don't even know when I was born but I'm 73.

(Where were you born?)

Oh, in Oklahoma on the Washita River.

(What town was that close to?)

Oh Fort Cobb.

(In fort Cobb?)

Yes. In Fort Cobb.

(What was your mother's name?)

Eva High.

(What tribe was she?)

Kiowa-Apache.

(What was your father's name?)

I don't even know his name. He passed away when I was small.

(Was he an Apache?)

Yes.

(Do you remember your grandparents name?)

I know them but I.....they got Indian name.

(Could you go ahead and give me their Indian names?)

I just don't remember that's way back. I know them. But I don't know their names.

I just forgot it because that's way back. My Grandma passed away when I was the size of this boy about eight.

(Do you have any brothers or sisters?)

I've just got one brother.

(And how old is he?)

Oh he's about 42. 40 I guess. He's got a big family too.

Oh, Webster High, sometimes they call him Charlie.
