

(You never did learn how to make any medicine?)

No.

(Do you remember any of the names of the Indian doctors?)

No, I don't remember. They got Indian names you know. I don't remember.

(Did they use any peyote to cure people then?)

Uh-huh, yes.

(Did you ever see anyone get cured like that?)

Yeah, I seena---lot of them get cured like that.

(How did they do it?)

See--well, I don't know. I just can't tell you.

(You don't remember?)

I just don't remember.

(Did they have peyote meetings then?)

Um-hum. They had meetings. They call it peyote meetings.

(How often did they have them?)

Oh, just whenever they wanted to put up a meeting they have it. They don't have it every week.

(Did they have a fireman like they have now?)

Yeah.

(I've never seen or been to a peyote meeting. What do they?)

Oh, they.....Well, I don't hardly go in there. I don't nothing, much about it.

You don't hardly see young people go to that meeting. The old people goes but most of them passed away.

(Could you just describe it to me a little bit?)

Oh, I just can't tell you. I don't know.

(Well, did very many people drink at these meetings?)

No, they keep them away.

(Oh they had somebody outside to make sure?)

Um-hum. Well, you don't see much boys and girls drunk at that time.
