

Is it a lot worse today?)

Yeah, it's no good today.

(Where did they get the peyote then?)

Oh, I just couldn't tell you. I don't know where they get it.

(How did they take it?)

Well, ----

Did they just eat it?)

Yeah, they....It's good for a sick person, I know. They eat it and they get well.

(A sick person?)

Yeah, I just know that. I don't know where they get it.

(What kind of sickness was it good for?)

Oh, it just uh....rheumatism, aching somewhere, it's good for it.

(Did women ever participate in peyote meetings?)

Oh, I don't know. I just couldn't tell you.

(How long did the meetings last?)

Oh, they just...they go in sundown, come out in the morning. They pray all night.

(What kind of place would they have it in?)

In a tipi.

(In a tipi?)

Yeah.

(About how many usually came to these meetings?)

Oh, I don't know.

(Was it a large number?)

Yeah, about maybe twenty or twenty-five something like that.

(Did they have music then?)

Yeah, they got music, they have pretty songs. They got pretty songs them peyote people.

(Did the missionaries...What did the missionaries think about these?)

I don't know. I couldn't say. I don't know.
