

(You never heard anyone say anything about it?)

No, I ain't heard nobody talk about it.

(Well, did the missionaries try to stop it?)

I don't know. I never did hear anybody try to stop it.

(Well, when did they start the Native American Church?)

Oh, I just don't know. When I was just a little girl. I didn't come to my senses then. I know then. Now to this day they don't hardly have a meeting because most of the old people use it.

SCHOOL

(When did you learn to speak English?)

Oh, I just ~~ouldn't~~ tell you how old I was. I must be about eight or seven years old, I guess.

(Where were you ?)

Well, you know, my mother use to cook for a school, just one little school. That's where I went but they just had blocks, cut one, two, three, cut round blocks. They didn't have no boards. There is one school they had here, somewheres right in here, I don't know where. There wasn't no house, then.

(Here in Amiaroko?)

Uh-huh.

(What was the name of it?)

I don't know. I was little I don't.....

(Well, do you remember the name of the school where you went?)

I don't know ~~that~~ school ~~where~~ I first started but I ~~went~~ to Catholic school and Methodist school right in there ~~somewhere~~.

(Was ~~that~~ a Methodist school?)

Um-hum, I went to it first and then I went to St. Patrick's.

(Is that a Catholic school?)

Um-hum. I didn't ~~stay~~ there long.

(How long were you there?)
