

(Even Saturdays and Sunday's?)

No.

(What did you do on Saturday?)

Oh, we just play around. There was no town to go to town.

(Did they ever make you study on Saturday?)

No.

(What did you do on Sunday's?)

Well, we go to Sunday school, church.

(Did that last all day?)

No, we go to church in the afternoon and evening. About seven, well right after supper

I guess we go to church.

(Did you have a specific time you had to go to bed?)

No.

(Well, did they let you stay up as late as you wanted to?)

No, we all had to go to bed when it was time to. We had to go to bed at eight.

(Oh at eight?)

Uh-huh.

(What time did you have to get up in the morning?)

About six, I guess.

(What time did you have to get up on Saturday mornings?)

That's the same way, six.

(What kind of a place did you stay in?)

Uh-----

(What kind of.....was it a house?)

Yeah. They had a big house. The Catholic school had a big house. The girls stay in different and the boys stayed in different.

(Did you have a room to yourself?)

No, we all lived in a big dormitory.

(It was all girls in one.)
