

(Did they have running water?)

Yeah.

(Did they have a certain time you had to go to bed at night?)

Oh, well, we all go to bed about seven or eight something like that.

(What time did they get up in the morning?)

Oh about six (sic) or seven. I can hardly remember.

(And you went to school a half of day?)

Yes.

(Then worked a half a day?)

Yes.

(What did you do on week-ends?)

Oh, we just had to be at the building. And play around with the other children.

(Did they let you go home very often?)

No.

(About how often would they let you?)

Well, I didn't hardly come home. When school was out I come home.

(When was it out and how long?)

Oh, just during the summer.

(How old were you when you started there?)

Oh, I must have been about fourteen or thirteen.

(And how long did you go there?)

Just two years.

(Well, did you graduate from there?)

No.

(So how old were you when you left?)

I left there when I was seventeen years old in 1911, I think.

(What did you do after you left the school?)

Well, I came home and stayed with my folks.

(When did you marry?)
