

LIFE HISTORY

(When did you marry Mr. Whitefox?)

1918 I think. Wasn't it? ((to her husband)) And he went into the army in 1918.

(And his first name is Glen?)

Uh-huh, Glen Whitefox. But most peoples go by they call Lottie High, they don't go by Lottie Whitefox.

(Why do they do that?)

I don't know.

(Well, do most of the women go by their maiden names?)

Most of them.

(Who was your first child?)

Billy..

(And how many children do you have?)

One and I got three by him.

((SHE WAS MARRIED ONCE BEFORE BUT ON THIS DAY SHE WOULD NOT TALK OF HER PREVIOUS MARRIAGE.))

Two girls by him now, we lost our boy.

(What was his name?)

Virgil Whitefox.

(So you were married in 1917?)

Uh-huh. And he went into the army in 1918.

(This was the first world war?)

Uh-huh.

(What did he do in the army?)

Well you know where they went. They went to Germany.

(Oh, did he go over there?)

Yeah, he went over but he didn't get to fight. The peace was signed then.

(By time he got over there?)

Yeah.
