

(And how long did he stay over there?)

Oh, I don't know how long he stayed over there.

(Did he have an allotment?)

Yeah, it's got an allotment.

(Where is it?)

Mountain View. He is about the same age as me, 73. /

(Does he have a lease man too?)

Yeah.

(What does his lease man do with his land?)

Oh, he farms it.

(What year did he come back, in 1919?)

Uh...I don't know. 1919 I think was when he got back.

(Where did you live then?)

Carnegie, west of Carnegie. And sometimes I stay with my mother in Fort Cobb and sometimes I stay with his folks.

(Well, how did you make your money then?)

Well, he got his pension, allotment every month he was in the army but I have my lease money, I could draw every month.

(How old was your first son when he died?)

((pause))

(I mean not your first son but the first Whitefox?)

I hate to say.

(How big was Carnegie then?)

It wasn't too big. It was small.

(Did you go to a doctor in Carnegie?)

No, I never did go to the doctor in Carnegie.

(Where were the doctors you went to?)

Oh, I just go to Indian doctor.

(What kind of sicknesses did you have?)
