

And then, of course, we moved back down on that old home place where my son lives right up on the hill. You probably saw that house.

(I saw it.)

Yeah. And I tell you. We might have done something about that place down there, it just wasn't for one thing and that--(words not clear)

(This is a nice place to live here.)

Its close to town. That's one thing I like about it.

(Where is--)

(Words not clear)--front room and had a little upstairs just to--(words not clear) house now. We sold it. (Not clear)...folks lived. And then they built it (tape skip) Well, they had some land over there but they built it on his land. Of course he got it and you never see 'em till fall. And then they finally moved over across the branch there to that house on the side of the hill.

BUTLER CHURCH - BUTLER SCHOOL HOUSE

(And was there a Butler church at one time?)

Yeah. Yeah, there was a Butler church and a school down there.

(You went to the Butler school house, I mean, school for your education. Was it the only school over in that Cedar Springs?)

Yes, they came for miles around, you know, people did. Just the kids. They sent their kids over there because that was about the closest. But this school wasn't there.

(Oh, it wasn't there?)

No.

SCHOOL TEACHERS MOVED

(Do you remember who your teacher was when you were going to school over there?)

Walter Fox was one of 'em.

(Walter Fox, that's what I was--)

(Sentence not clear)

Houston Ballard was there.
