

(Houston Ballard. He was quite a prominent man too. They were both very prominent teachers.)

Yeah. And then there's Ruth Fleming. Did you know her? She was a sister to them. And then there's two more of them. One of them married a Woods. But I forgot who--oh, the other married a Bunch.

EARLY DAY PREACHERS--OTHER OLD TIMERS

(How about the early day preachers? Do you remember any of those old timers? Well, Jimmy's dad was one of the early day preachers. He used to go for mile and miles around. He'd go way down there what they call Mt. Hermon now.

(Now that was Rev. Elijah--)

No. That's James P. Butler.

(James P. Butler.)

Yes. That was way back there though. But now Rev. Elijah Butler, I didn't know him. That was Jimmy's grandpa.

(Old man Dave Bucket was he a preacher too?)

He might have been. See that was Jimmy's uncle.

(They had a lot of preachers there. Rev. Joe Fox, Elijah Snell.)

Aaron Butler. He died out in Oregon. And George Cunnigan. He was another one of the preachers. There used to be a house, I mean a church house, right up-- Have you been close to Butler school house?

(Uh-huh)

Where it is now. 'Course the old one burned down. And then they built a new one there. Its just a church now. They don't have no school house now. But, now, the old Butler school is right down under the hill. Right about even with where you turn to go to the cemetery. Out back this way in a field.

(Kinda sets up there by where the old spring was.)

Yeah.

(I know where it is. I mean where it used--is located.)
