

Unidentified speaker: Yeah. Donna, what could be done with that is, it could be sent off and put in a packet. That's what we're doing to the rolls.

(Well, let's see. This is--)

Mrs. Vowel: Some of it's gone or maybe I worked something in there that didn't belong. ((She shows the original deed for 160 acres allotted to her father 1892.))

(There's a top piece, I believe, yet.)

Well, there's one, two, several pieces gone.

(Yeah. Let me see now this is the--)

This is the middle piece right here.

(January 11, 1892. With the General Land Office, Dept. of the Interior, I guess, transferred to James Elliot, would it be? Let's see. A tract of land in northwest quarter of the south part section 16. Township 20-- let's see--this would be 26 here. 27. In Indian territory containing 40 acres, I would say. Well, that is an old document, isn't it?)

I have my mother's like that, too.

(Well.)

She kept 'em.

(Let's see by the President, Benjamin Harrison. Well, that is most interesting.)

Unidentified speaker: (Not clear)--I was born in '13. So it still isn't very old, but I can't remember that old. But my husband did. See he (words not clear)--and lived in the family. But that's not it. That's not it. It's just that he was a fine person.

(Oh, he must have been--)

He was a fine person to begin with, but he was so talented. He wrote poetry.

Mrs. Vowel: I can't find that. (Static on tape.)
