

they got a boy, too.

(They've got two girls and a boy.)

Yeah.

(Now, what about Jenny--does she have any kids--Jenny Birdshead?)

Yeah, she's got kids.

(Who's her husband?)

Her husband is Hoot Curtis.

(Hoot Curtis? Is he related to that Charlie Curtis?)

Yeah.

(How many do they have?)

Oh, they got a bunch. I just know one. I just know one's name. They call him Bud. And--to tell the truth, I just know that one. But they got a bunch of them. They have girls and boys--I don't know.

(I'll just put a bunch of marks here to indicate a bunch of kids. What about Donna May--does she have any kids?)

Donna May, she's got nine kids, and I don't know none of them's names. They live in Denver. She's got mostly boys--I think she's got seven boys and two girls. I seen her once--just only at the pow-wow, and I don't even ask her her kids' names. I know the oldest one is Junior--Jacob Reynolds.

(That's her husband?)

Yeah.

(Is he Arapaho?)

Cheyenne. He's been in Half-Way House for about a year. In Clinton.

(Is it helping him?)

I don't know.

(Is she still out in Denver then with the kids?)

Yeah, and she's got one boy in the service--Jacob.
