

nae.sae'hae

(What if both of them are older than you are, and you're talking about your two older brothers. What would you say?)

nae.s'wh'w' h'w'

(Now, this nae'hae'bae'hae --would you use this when you're talking to your younger brother--addressing him directly?)

Yeah. Yeah.

(And what if you're talking about him to someone else?)

nae.hae'bae'hae -- same thing.

BROTHER/SISTER RELATIONSHIP

(How about if you're addressing your older brother--how would you address him if you're talking to him directly?)

If I could talk to him I would have to say ne.s'wh'w'w'.

(You said if you could talk to him--could you explain that a little more?)

What?

(You mean you're not supposed to talk to your elder brothers?)

No.

(Is there any reason for that?)

I don't know. I don't know why. You wasn't supposed to talk to your brother.

You wasn't supposed to talk to him unless you had to or he had to.

(Does that apply just to the oldest brother or to the youngest ones?)

Yeah, all of them. All the brothers.

(Even the younger brothers?)

Yeah, even the younger brothers.

(Was it the same way with the brothers with their sisters, or could they talk to their sisters?)

No. They couldn't talk to their sisters.
