

Opening of program the Starhawk society initiating some members. Alonzo Sankey will be initiated. The Starhawk members dance in front of other gourd dance groups.

Sunday afternoon program starts about two'o clock---late because of heavy rain which delayed the public dinner. Good crowd and lot of gourd dancers present. Program opens with Gourd Dance after flag song.

Announcer: Now, what is taking place here is the initiation of these two boys--Alonzo Sankey and Joseph Birdshead, Junior. There's four more--

(songs?)

(A song is sung. Then a hiatus in tape.)

Announcer: Joe Hoof. He's present here for--John Sleeper, Stanley, Henry Bates, Nelson Sage, he coming over there to give you these presents. Josephine, bring them men over here. Josephine is making introduction of Harold Cedartree and Mark--boy from out west--Cherokee. She's asking ten dollars for the next pow-wow. We're asking the pow-wow committee to come and acknowledge ten dollars.

At this time we are having a special for Alonzo Sankey who is one of these that's been chosen as one of the Gourd Clan--to join the Starhawks... This is that special for Alonzo Sankey. (Song begins---War Dance song.. This special given by Alonzo's wife, Margaret. He is also out-going Chairman of the pow-wow committee.) Alonzo Sankey's asking Peggie Jenkins to come and shake hands with Alonzo. Olive Sankey is also making introduction of a brother-in-law here that's been introduced to the Gourd Clan, asking Peggy Jenkins and Lloyd Jenkins, you're also asked to come to the stand. Lloyd Jenkins. When your name is called, will you please respond immediately. If they're not here, someone come and acknowledge the gift. Gregory Lane-
