

hands---go put it down in your book--we'll find him.

Saul: Gladys Hancock, you're asked to come and shake hands with Joseph Birdshead. Oscar Tabor here is giving some money to Myrtle Lincoln. Come over here and get this money. We're asking the Wyoming visitors to come over here and shake hands with Joseph Birdshead, Junior. Wyoming visitors. We're waiting on you. (Pause) (Calls several times for Wyoming visitors.) Any more? Last call---Wyoming visitors. Charlie Arkiketa. All right. We'll turn over mike to the committee.

Washee: We're going into the ladies cloth dress contest--gonna finish it now. (Reads the numbers of the contestants.) Come on out--the judges are ready. Straight dancers start getting ready. Want to get these over with this afternoon and due to the time factor we'd like to combine some of these specials we have left. We have a full program tonight. We have the first division contest tonight. (Calls for numbers again.)

(Cut to results of ladies contest.) (Drawing for Pendleton blanket)

Washee: Got to get rid of these blankets. We've got three blankets (to raffle off) tonight. (Cut--song for straight dancers and anyone else who wants to war dance before straight dance runoff.) This is to notify you straight dancers who are in the camp here, that we're just about ready to go into the straight dance contest. We got first, second and third trophy.

(Singers includ: Some Wyoming men, Ace Chalepah, John Oldman, Conroy Wall-owingbull, Moses Star, Junior and Moses Star, Senior.

Washee: A special at this time will take place--Joe Hoof, the outgoing treasurer; Allen Sutton, the head man dancer; Kate Osage special for Jeff Woodhouse. These will be recognized at this time--three specials. All right,
