

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA:

(Note: the tape begins with Sarah telling me about her name.)

It's Long Horn in English, but in Kiowa it's the same name - but ah, Goo-en tine is through the Kiowa. But it's Long Horn just the same. (Repeats first sentence.) And ah, my mother's name is Pahahty. Rahahty, Pahahty, P a h a h t y ..And I was born in Kiowa County. I'll be 65 years old August the 15th. Sixty-five years old. I went to school at Rainy Mountain Indian School. I guess a lot of people that you've met went to the same school as I did. That's where I went all through. Three sisters and one brother all went to the same school. Government Indian school.

(Did Evelyn go there?)

No. It was already broken up. The school was already taken away from us. She went to Fort Sill and Riverside. I went as far as up to the sixth grade. As far as I went. I was in poor health and I had to quit.

(How old were you at that time?)

I must be about twelve years old. I stayed with my mother. After my dad passed away I stayed with my mother all that time, they call it.

LONG HORN MOUNTAIN AND SPRING:

(Turning to place where she grew up) it's well known. I guess you heard of it, Long Horn Mountain. I wonder if you all ever been over there. There's a cave on that mountain that my brother and my kin folk found. When they first found that cave, well it had some ah spoons and forks, and a few dishes, a few items left in it.

(Did they find out who left them?)
