

Same-- naeaeaeap

(And what if she had several daughters-in-law that she's talking--?)

naeaeaeabi And it's the same for my father-in-law--he'd say

naeaeaeap and naeaeaeabi

(What about a son-in-law?)

naeaeae^h aex^h

(naeaeae^h w^h x^h)

Yeah, naeaeae^h aex^h

(And if you're talking about your son-in-law to someone else--how would you--?)

The same.

(All right. And what if you had several sons-in-law?)

naeaeae^h aex^h

(Getting down to the next generation, what about the wives and husbands of your grandchildren--would you have any special terms for them?)

Just sam thing-- nesih^h w^h h^h w^h -- nesi^h w^h h^h w^h w^h

(Then you'd call them the same as your grandchildren?)

Same way, yeah.

(Did I ask you "brother-in-law"--your husband's brother?)

Yeah. nee^h bi -- it's already on there.

(And sister-in-law?)

Yeah. n^h w^h to^h u Yesterday we did that.

(What about your mother's sister--what would you call her?)

n^h w^h w^h

(Same as your mother?)

Yeah.
