

(We are at the home of Fannie Good Eagle Richards in Quapaw, and she is going to tell us something about her family. Fannie can you tell me a little bit about your mother and father and what you--and your brothers and sisters and what their Indian names were. Now what is your Indian name?)

FAMILY BACKGROUND

My Indian name is (Indian name). I don't know the meaning of it.

(And your father was named--?)

Francis Quapaw Good Eagle.

(And what was your mother's name?)

Ho gam ee Ho ga ment ha (?).

(And could you tell me about your brothers and sisters?)

I had two brothers--own brothers, Charles Good Eagle. His name was (Indian name), and my brother Merton was (Indian name). And I had two half brothers Levi Good Eagle, his name was (Indian name) and Paul Good Eagle, his name was (Indian name). And I have a sister, Miss Gieta--Clara Mae her name is.

(Where were you born?)

Let me see--where did we say?

(It's on Hominy Creek.)

Hominy Creek. Out there in Osage Nation. Um-huh. Osage Nation.

(And how old are you?)

I'm 76.

(And you've lived up here since you were real young.)

Yes I have. Um-huh.

(Did your father come back for the allotment?)

Yes. He come back here. He got allotment here. (sentence not clear) --Pioneer and Larsh.

(Pioneer and Larsh were the names of the mines on your--)

Um-huh. There's two mills on that. Larsh Brothers and the other was called Pioneer.