

(Do you still have them?)

Yeah.

(They are not active now though.)

No.

EARLY POW-WOW'S

(Do you remember the early pow-wows?).

Yeah.

(Could you tell me about them?)

Well, they wasn't big gatherings like they have now. They were more or less just camping. And had stomps and football games and gave out food--gave out food like beef and bread (not clear).

(And they ran a table?)

No. They each cook for themself.

(I see. The table came later, didn't it?)

Um-huh.

(Do you remember some of the early people who went to those po -wows? Who was chief when you were a little girl?)

QUAPAW CHIEFS

Tallchief I believe. Uh-huh.

(Tallchief. Then when he died, Victor?)

Pete Clabber used to be chief.

(Oh, Pete Clabber.)

Yesh.

(Oh yes, and John Quapaw--)

--was chief too.

(And eaver--John Beaver.)

I believe so.

(Mary was John Beaver a chief? (talking to Mary Red Eagle.)).
