

T-623-3 (Third of Five Interviews)
MAMIE TURKEY LONG, SENECA-CAYUGA
INTERVIEWED BY: VEIMA NEIBERDING
INTERVIEW DATE: FEBRUARY 19, 1970
TRANSCRIBED BY: MARJORIE MURDOCK
TRANSCRIPTION CHECKED BY: MONETTE COOMBES

GENERAL SUBJECT: MEDICINE; FAMILY; TURKEY FORD COMMUNITY; SCHOOLS
GAMES

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

FAMILY BACKGROUND
RAISES TOBACCO AND DOCTORS WITH HERBS
PEACH SEED GAME
FATHER MADE TAPES FOR CEREMONIALS IN 1912 - STILL USED
SENECA INDIAN SCHOOL

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Mamie Turkey Long is 70 years old. She has lived in the area of Turkey Ford Community all of her life. Mamie has grown the tobacco for her tribe's ceremonies since she was ten years old. She is one of the "Pot Hangers," which means that she has been appointed as one of the cooks for special occasions, such as ceremonies, etc. She attended Seneca Indian school at Wyandotte, Oklahoma.

Note: The other interviews on this tape are: Intertribal Council Meeting
Language Class, Seneca-Cayuga
False Face Dance, Seneca-Cayuga
Language Class, Seneca-Cayuga