

you another dress to put those other elk teeth, because my uncles and brothers are gonna get some more elk teeth for me anyhow." One year they got, I think, about six hundred. You know, there's two tusk teeth on elk (Elk canines, used to ornament dresses).

Clinton: The Hamiltons...had requested a special honoring Ronald Redshin, who was a very delightful person. He was active and he never had any ill feeling toward any person although he was already become a man. And this family, through his actions towards these people-- towards his loved ones--they took it upon themselves and want to express how they felt about this young man. They had wanted for some time to honor Ronald Redshin this way. So the time has come. So at this time we are honoring Ronald Redshin. Calling on Wilson Brady to step forward and receive a gift. Introduction being made by Joyce Heapofbirds. Also calling Frances Neely. She isn't here--she had to go lock the Greenfield jail! She'll be right back. But her daughter will accept the gift for her. Frances is the jailer at Greenfield! (Clinton Youngbear and Frances Neeley are both from Greenfield and he teases her a lot.) Also calling Roger Redhat. (Jess says he lives northwest of Canton and is a preacher) Calling the head drummer, Alfritch Heapofbirds, to come forward and receive a gift. Here comes Frances (Neeley), just coming in the north door. Got northern cars last night and got all that stuff out of them! (Laugh) (Jess says they're Greenfield people and josh one another a lot.) Frank Hamilton is making introduction in honor of his nephew and at this time is calling Wilson Brady to come forward and receive a monetary gift. Ada Hamilton is making introduction in honor of her nephew and is calling
