

Well, it is only lack of management. They know how to do their work but they don't know how to manage. That's been the problem--.

(They had no experience in management. Have they?)

That's the way I've seen it. I knew a fellow who worked here in investments, and he was the best there was. And he wanted to borrow some money to open up his own shop. Well when he came to the management part of it why he didn't have it. So the thing fell through.

(That's kind of bad. I know some of them that go into the Filling station business and it's the same way.)

Yeah

(Yeah, they know how to handle the pumps and do the work and everything but the book work that is necessary they just haven't had the experience in it.)

That's the trouble as I see it. If they could learn that why any of them could go into business for themselves.

INTERMARRIAGE

(Have the Coddos inter-married much with the other tribes--with non-Indians.

Has there been a lot of intermarriage?)

Well here lately yes, the younger people are doing that.

(Do you think one of these day it will be hard to find a full blood Indian?)

It's getting that way now.

(Getting that way now, yeah. Are you full blood?)

No.

(French?)

French, yeah. Irish.

(Irish and Indian, huh?)

Yeah
