

honor of their sons /names not clear/. I'm sure we have other Gold Star Mothers here today.

(About three minutes of singing.)

Unidentified voice: Thank you, friends, be seated. Now, Mrs. Jackson and our Gold Star Mothers like to honor you and members of the Kiowa Veterans.

(Singing continuous for about eight minutes.)

Unidentified voice: Let's hope by next year we can have the biggest victory and biggest stomp dance we ever had in this area, when our boys will be back. Thank you.

(Singing begins.)

Unidentified voice: All right, old timer, show us how to do this.

Unidentified voice: (Speaks in Indian language.)

Unidentified voice: This is a very special Veteran song, will you to stand with us, all veterans?

(Singing.)

Mr. B. D. Timmons: They are inducting three new members in the Kiowa Veteran Association, here. This is the song for them.

This is the Black Legging Society song.

Unidentified voice: (Speaks in Indian language.)

(Singing ends after twenty-five minutes.)

End of Tape.
