

T-63

CLARA WINONA GOODBEAR, CHEYENNE
INTERVIEWED BY: DAVID JONES
INTERVIEW DATE: JUNE 25, 1967
TRANSCRIBED BY: DAVID JONES

GENERAL SUBJECT: LIFE HISTORY; LIFE IN THE RESERVATION PERIOD; ALLOTMENTS

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

SCHOOL EXPERIENCES
KIND OF WORK THAT WOMEN DID
ABOUT THE STORE IN FAY, OKLAHOMA
ABOUT WAGONS
HOW HER MOTHER TANNED HIDES
ISSUE DAY (RATIONS)
ERECTING A TIPI
RATIONING DISTRICTS
ABOUT ALLOTMENT, OFFICES
HER FATHER AS AN INDIAN SCOUT FOR THE ARMY
INDIAN MEDICINES
CHEYENNE GOURD CLAN SOCIETY
DANCES: DIFFERENT WAR DANCE IN OLD DAYS - SUN DANCE

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Clara Winona Goodbear was born approximately in 1894, in the vicinity of North Canadian River near the town of Watonga, Oklahoma. Her mother was Southern Cheyenne and her father was Northern Cheyenne. She is married to Richard Goodbear, the husband of her deceased older sister, and now resides with her step-son in the town of Watonga.